The angel said, "Fear not." "Fear not" is one of the standard opening lines that angels use to calm humans when they meet them, but it rarely does any good, and it certainly didn't do any good on this night. At the first sound coming from the angel's mouth, all eight shepherds fell flat on their faces. They were shaking and clinging to the earth as if crawling back into the

The name Lailah is the same as the Hebrew word for "night" laylah הליל. The identification of the word "night" as the name of an angel originates with the interpretation of "Rabbi Yochanan" (possibly Yochanan ben Zakkai c. 30 - 90 CE) who read "At night [Abraham] and his servants deployed against them and defeated them" (JPS Genesis 14.14) as "by [an angel called] night"

(Sanhedrin 96a).
