epitome of confidence
but when the narrator
tells us that she is very small, she is shocked
and goes around

asking everyone if she

she asks (e.g. the Moon!) tell her how small she is, but the small things she asks (e.g. a ladybird) tell her how big she is.

The original premise of Phillip Winterberg's Bin ich klein? (Am I Small?) is simplicity itself, is basically and sweetly straightforwardly that size is always and
forever relative and

that depending on the body types and
proportions of those around us, we are perceived as being at times small and at times large (and thus,
we are everything, and therefore just right).
