When I hit a "crisis moment" in exploring my direction in life and work, I decided to take the gifts the civic engagement world had given me—the knowledge, skills, tools, and experience from civic and community engagement—and apply them toward strengthening campus communities themselves to better deliver on higher education's social compact with America—that is, to better serve ...

Toward an Innovative Civic Engagement Pedagogy

Since the 1960s, 'mainstream' Irish education has arguably placed the emphasis on engagement through work and economic citizenship rather than civic engagement through critique. Dunne (2002:69) fears that "we may no longer be able to educate for citizenship", as the notions of freedom and equality promised by economic growth are essentially competitive, necessarily undermining the ...
